

Washington University in St. Louis

A Round Table Discussion:

POLITICS AND THE CITY

Join us as we mark 10 years of Washington University's City Seminar series!

Participants:

Sarah Coffin

Associate Professor
Center for Sustainability and Department of Public Policy Studies
St. Louis University

Douglas Flowe

Assistant Professor, History
Arts & Sciences, Washington University

Clarissa Hayward

Associate Professor, Political Sciences; Affiliated Faculty, Urban Studies
Arts & Sciences, Washington University

Jesse Vogler

Assistant Professor, Landscape Architecture
Sam Fox School, Washington University

The City Seminar is an interdisciplinary speaker/discussion colloquia on cities, urban issues and urbanisms, that takes place across campus at Washington University, since 2006. This event is free and open to the public. Wine and cheese will be served.

ames AMERICAN MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY

BARBARA BOHANNON CENTER FOR THE STUDY OF THE CITY

Department of History

THE DIVIDED CITY

SCHOOL OF HUMANITIES

Image credit: Candice Kitzinger for Leah SPT

NOVEMBER 10, 2016

Mildred Lane Kemper Art Museum

Room 104 | 6:30 - 8:00pm