

WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY FALL 2015

CITY SEMINAR

AN INTERDISCIPLINARY SPEAKER / DISCUSSION SERIES ON CITIES, URBAN ISSUES

sponsored by the American Culture Studies Program

The City Seminar is an annual colloquium that brings together scholars and urbanists from across the St. Louis region to share their disciplinary perspectives, ideas, research methods, theories and designs related to cities, urbanization and urban issues in the US and abroad.

Free and open to all students and faculty across campus and across universities.
All talks are at Washington University, Danforth Campus.

For more information contact: Patty Heyda, Assistant Professor,
Urban Design, Sam Fox School: heyda@wustl.edu

At the Risk of Seeming Ridiculous
Recasting "Black Lives Matter" in the Contemporary Popular Imagination

GARRETT DUNCAN

Associate Professor of Education
Associate Professor of African & African-American Studies
Washington University in St. Louis

Oct 8

Thursday 12:00-1:30 pm
Busch Hall rm 18

* lunch will be provided
please RSVP if possible to:
tneguse@wustl.edu

The Metamorphic City
Eco-urbanism and quality of life in post-industrial cities

CATALINA FREIXAS

Assistant Professor of Architecture, Sam Fox School
Washington University in St. Louis

OCT 22

Thursday 12:00-1:30 pm
Busch Hall rm 18

* lunch will be provided
please RSVP if possible to:
tneguse@wustl.edu