CITY with Neil Goldberg SEMINAR Sense & the City

AN INTERDISCIPLINARY SPEAKER/ DISCUSSION SERIES ON CITIES, URBAN ISSUES

The City Seminar is a colloquium series that brings together scholars and urbanists from across the St. Louis region and US to share their disciplinary perspectives, ideas, research methods, theories and designs related to cities, urbanization and urban issues in the US and abroad. This talk is sponsored by the Divided City Initiative.

In this lecture and participatory workshop, artist Neil Goldberg shares his photography and video work, which documents the spaces and cadences of ordinary urban experience, and offers a series of sense-based exercises for more richly perceiving the environments we inhabit.

Neil Goldberg makes video, photo, mixed media, and performance work that has been exhibited internationally at venues including The Museum of Modern Art (permanent collection), The New Museum of Contemporary Art, The Museum of the City of New York, among others. The New York Times described his work as “tender, moving and sad but also deeply funny,” and Time Out New York wrote “Goldberg has produced some of the most quietly intense and affecting art of his generation.” Goldberg is a Guggenheim Fellow and teaches at the Yale University School of Art.
