City Seminar Presents:
AN INTERDISCIPLINARY SPEAKER / DISCUSSION SERIES ON CITIES, URBAN ISSUES
“There's No Place to Rest”: Transience, Debility, and the Management of Homelessness

TERRANCE WOOTEN, PHD
MARK STEINBERG WEIL EARLY CAREER POSTDOCTORAL FELLOW
CENTER FOR THE HUMANITIES
WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY IN ST. LOUIS

* Lunch will be provided *
Please RSVP at https://cenhum.artsci.wustl.edu/online-theres-no-place-to-rest
Contact: tneguse@wustl.edu

Drawing on two years of ethnographic research on homelessness in Montgomery County, MD, this presentation will explore the relationship between the production of urban space, the regulation of transients, and the delivery of homeless services to consider how transience functions as a debility making practice that is put to productive use by homeless service providers in both the management and resolution of homelessness.

WEDNESDAY,
JANUARY 31, 2018
12:00PM
WOMEN’S BUILDING
FORMAL LOUNGE

Image credit: Anna Vignet //San Francisco Public Press